Congregation Or Chadash Love

By, Michael Helfgott Or Chadash Co-President

Dear Mr. President – I’ve been a member of Or Chadash for a while, but sometimes I feel that I am not part of the “in” or “A-list” crowd, that though I attend OC functions regularly, people don’t want to hang out with me. Whenever you come to services, you know everybody, and I am wondering, what’s your secret? Member Seeking Timely Help About Never Going-out

Dear MSTHANG – As this is my first column as Co-President of Or Chadash, and you’re my first letter writer, I must write that the “Mr. President” thing has a lovely ring to it, but “Michael” does just fine. So what’s my secret? I.T.; Involvement and Time. Moving to Chicago seven years ago to attend law school, I didn’t know a soul. I felt like the opening song of season one of the Mary Tyler Moore Show, “How Will You Make It On Your Own? This World is Awfully Big; Girl This Time You’re All Alone.” I came to OC within a month of moving here. Those first few years I had exactly the same reaction as you, “what’s wrong with these people?! Can’t they see that I am wonderful!?” And the answer is “yes”, IF you give them a chance. So what did I do? I got involved little by little, volunteering with the Pride Parade, helping clean up a cemetery, participating in services, and simply saying hello to other members. By being open and being involved in the life of the synagogue, others were willing to become involved with me. We are all busy people, you included, whether because of work obligations, family commitments, or making sure that various government institutions and NGOs are not screwing up benefits, it can be difficult to find time. But it is worth it. And though the rest of the words of the MTM opening song are "But It's Time You Started Living; It's Time You Let Someone Else Do Some Giving," I would say do give a little. Remember, the famous refrain starts with "Love is All Around No Need to Waste It." Be patient with other members; they have busy lives too. Get involved in synagogue projects (paying dues and sending money is very important, but it doesn't get you to meet people. And I am pretty sure that "You're Going to Make It After All!"

Calling all OC Choir Members and Potential Choir Members

By Judith Golden – Cantorial Soloist

It is time to start planning our preparation for the Days of Awe.

Whether you have sung with the Or Chadash Choir in the past or not, if you can basically carry a tune (reading music is not required), we would love to have you.

Come sing with us, and laugh with us, and learn with us as we prepare our hearts and our music for the Days of Awe. There will be six Sun. afternoon rehearsals, starting in mid August. Actual dates TBD. If you are interested, or think you might be, please contact Judith Golden.

Our Mission

Congregation Or Chadash is a Jewish religious organization whose purpose is to provide a warm, affirming, Jewish community where all people can feel welcome.

To accomplish this mission, Or Chadash will:

Remember that it was founded as an answer to the prejudice that gay and lesbian Jews experienced in other synagogues;

Strive to ensure that no Jew experiences prejudice within our community;

Maintain affiliations with the Union for Reform Judaism and the World Congress of Gay and Lesbian Jewish Organizations;

Build strong ties within the greater Jewish community of the metropolitan Chicago area;

Dedicate itself to the basic obligations of Jewish life, including:

- Respecting the contributions of people of all generations
- Sharing the life-cycle events of its members
- Celebrating Shabbat and the holidays
- Fostering prayer with sincerity
- Visiting the sick
- Comforting the bereaved
- Encouraging the study of Torah

Congregation Or Chadash is a not-for-profit organization that is largely supported by contributions from its members and friends. Please remember us generously.

By Laurie Grauer – Out Going Social Action Chair

Well, June was one heck of a month! Or Chadash participated in the Walk with Israel on June 5th, co-staffed the Uptown Café on June 14th, and let's not forget, co-cosponsored Ivri Lider Live from The House of Blues! Thank you to all of the OC members who volunteered for these events, including, but not limited to, Marvin Levin, Steve Lipton, Ethel Myer, Sunny Otake and Bob Rosenstein.

On a parting note, thank you again to members of my committee and to everyone who has ever taken part in our mad attempts to change the world one socially conscious program at a time. It's been an honor to serve as your Social Action Chair for the past two years. Our membership has a wonderful passion for Tikkun Olam and I know it will only continue to grow under your new Social Action Chair, Sunny Otake. Once again, Todah Rabah veh Shalom Aleichem. Remember that You Were Strangers in the Land of Egypt

By Rabbi Larry Edwards

(Oh, have I mentioned this before? Well, the Torah mentions it 36 times, so I'm trying to catch up.)

You may recall that we had a visit last year from Neil Grungras, who talked about his work with the Organization for Refugee Assistance & Migration (www.oraminternational.org) which focuses on refugees fleeing sexual or gender-based violence. Here in Chicago, Or Chadash has joined the LGBTQ Immigrant Rights Project and I have been attending their monthly meetings. The purpose here is to see connections and build alliances – to make sure that LGBTQ issues are on the agenda of immigration activists, and also that immigration reform is on the agenda of LGBTQ activists. They are related!

Here are a few of the reasons we are involved:

- 1. We are immigrants too: Of the 10.8 million people who live in the United States undocumented, many of them are part of the LGBTQ community.
- 2. Our families have few options: There are at least 35,000 same-sex couples in the U.S. that are affected by the immigration system. LGBTQ immigrants, both documented and undocumented, face hurdles when attempting to regularize their status or become citizens. ... Same-sex marriages and civil unions are not recognized by the federal government and therefore irrelevant to immigration issues. For an immigrant who is in a same-sex marriage, compared to one who is in a heterosexual marriage, there are an extra 2 years of residency before citizenship if the application is accepted. But if the application is denied, the immigrant partner will be put in deportation proceedings.
- 3. We can't help our immigrant partners: If a person is in deportation proceedings, whether it is because they have been living undocumented in the U.S. or have been denied their adjustment of status application, there are very few options for them to remain in the country. Some people have a "stay of deportation" from immigration when they have family members who are citizens, such as children, husbands, or wives — except in the case of same-sex couples.
- 4. We are here escaping persecution: Many LGBTQ and HIV+ immigrants leave their country of birth escaping homophobic and transphobic violence, including threats to their lives. Since 1994 the U.S. considers these situations grounds to request asylum and eventually permanent residency. ... However not all applications are accepted.
- 5. We face harassment and death in detention: A civil complaint by the National Immigrant Justice Center against DHS details "sexual assault, denials of medical care, arbitrary confinement, and severe harassment and discrimination" against LGBTQ immigrants. The complaint is on behalf of 13 transgender and gay people who came to the U.S. to escape persecution in their own countries. In addition, there have been several documented cases where transgender immigrants have been denied access to hormones, and HIV+ detainees denied access to medication, resulting in a number of deaths and investigations into human rights abuses. These abuses reflect the wrongful treatment that thousands of immigrants face in detention facilities throughout the country, under a system that disproportionately affects LGBTQ immigrants.

Help fight off the international BDS boycott on IGY!

20-06-11

ISRAEL GAY YOUTH NEEDS YOUR HELP!

Dear Friends,

IGY is set to host an international Leadership Seminar and the International Gay and Lesbian Youth Organization's (IGLYO) General Assembly, this coming December - in Tel Aviv!

Unfortunately, IGY has been under a defamation campaign.

A group of individuals, "Palestinian Queer Boycotts, Divestment and Sanctions" (PQ-BDS) associated with the general BDS movement, is running a campaign to boycott IGY's activities, due to our collaboration with local governmental agencies. Needless to say, the ability to collaborate with everyone and all organizations is the sole reason IGY and its services are the most recognized and acknowledged in Israel.

PQ-BDS are calling to boycott all interaction with us, including the Seminar and General Assembly, planned for December. These actions on their part are damaging to our worldwide collaborators and benefactors.

Our local and international collaborators (personal supporters and service providers) are backing out of agreements, because of their fears of being swept into the tide of slander and character assassination run by PQ-BDS.

Today, more than ever, in light of the political situation in the Middle East, we see it our duty to enable different voices to be heard, mutual lessons to be learnt.

We need your help, to make sure we can keep our core activities alongside the struggle to keep our obligation to the Seminar and GA, and fight off the attacks.

Ways to help:

Write	Tell	Donate
Write an appeal on our behalf, to encourage foundations and organizations supporting us and our beliefs.	Tell anyone you know about our struggle. Make sure they know we need all the help we can get.	Contributing helps ensure our ability to fund our campaign for diversity, hire PR specialists and lawyers.

If you have any thoughts, advice or connections you think we should make, please don't hesitate to contact our Funds and Resource team.

Thanks in advance!

Avner Dafni,
Executive Director - Israel Gay Youth
